- 1. Keep Your Head on the Stock!
A good gun mount and a constant eye-to-rib relationship is fundamental. No amount of effort spent on this is ever wasted.
- 2. Keep Your Barrel Still Until You See the Target
See the target, then move the gun to the breakpoint in the simplest most efficient manor.
- 3. Visualize Your Targets:
On every post consider what the extreme angles will look like, Watch every target and consider how you would shoot your squadmates' targets
- 4. Never Under Estimate the Value of a Professional Coach
