FOCUS ON FAMILY, FRIENDS AND FUN...

Finding time in your busy schedule to go break a few targets might seem like a feat of magic these days, but consider how important a couple of hours spent with your family and friends can be.

Time to focus on what's important. Teaching your kids responsible gun handling, or helping a friend break those elusive rabbit targets are all important to having a great time shooting White Flyer targets.

So take a lesson – or give some pointers. Bring your family and friends, spend the day with Pat and White Flyer Targets, you'll be glad you did!

"Growing up, I spent many weekends and summers out in the field or at the range with my father and brothers. I have been fortunate enough to continue this tradition with my two boys. As a range owner, it is always a pleasure to see others do the same; and with the consistency of White Flyer Targets, they can do so without worrying about broken targets ruining the fun!"
